

Motion Solutions Purchases RM Hoffman Company

September 20, 2016

North Branch Capital, LLC (“North Branch”) announced today that its portfolio company, Motion Solutions, has purchased RM Hoffman Company (“Hoffman”). Based in Sunnyvale, California, Hoffman is a value-added distributor of rotary and linear motion products for a broad customer base in many end markets, including medical equipment, general automation, automotive, and semi-conductor. For more information on Hoffman, please visit www.rmhoffman.com.

“Hoffman has been supplying high quality components and engineered systems for nearly 60 years,” said Bill Huber, Partner of North Branch. “Tom Hoffman and his team have done an excellent job serving a broad customer base. We are excited to partner with the entire Hoffman team.”

The transaction was completed on September 15, 2016. This is the second add-on Motion Solutions has completed since North Branch invested in the business in March of 2015.
